

Body of Marie Doniat, 22, 4192 Kenmore avenue, drowned while bathing with sister, Eleanor, at foot of Buena ave., not yet recovered. High sea interferes with work. Sister was saved by Louis Coppersmith, 1012 Wells ave.

Miss Hannah Clifford, 1410 Ashland ave., narrowly escaped drowning in lake near Evanston life saving station today.

Was rowing with Catherine Murphy, 538 Railroad ave., and Ruth Lawson, 1834 Sheridan road. Waves tossed boat and threw her into water. Hung onto boat until rescuers arrived.

Clifford Johnson, 7, 3839 Vin- cennes ave., died of lockjaw. Stepped on rusty nail.

John Peterson, 1810 Otto st., coal teamster, run over and instantly killed by his own wagon on N. 14th ave.

W. J. Buckley, 85, inmate of Oak Forest infirmary, killed by Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Ry. train near institution.

Henry Rexford, 58, attorney at 347 N. Clark st., knocked down and severely injured in front of 619 W. Madison st. by a tramp whom he refused to give 25 cents.

Five-year contract with Canal Melting Co., to remove dead animals from streets and alleys has been signed by Dr. George B. Young, commissioner of health. City receives $25 a year as compensation.

Walter Harris, 30, is held to the grand jury by Municipal Judge Hopkins charged with forging a check drawn on First National bank.

George Blank, 51, veteran door- keeper for First Trust Savings bank, found dead in basement of his home at 438 N. Artesian ave., asphyxiated by gas. Believed to be accidental.

H. C. A. Johnson, 2553 Logan blvd., knocked down and slightly bruised at Madison and Canal sts. by auto driven by George Knab, restaurant owner. Knab took Johnson to doctor's office.

Bones of women believed to have been left by medical student were found in barn at rear of furniture store of Harry Lasinsky, 437 S. Halsted st., by boys who were playing there. Police investigating.

Rev. Richard L. Williams, who disappeared from wife's side at Graceland cemetery Monday, found at Y. M. C. A., 1515 W. Monroe st.

Edward McDonald, 30, 4429 Wilcox av., has been identified as one of men who robbed William Foreman yesterday morning on Desplaines st., between W. Madison st. and Washington blvd. of $25 and diamond stickpin. Police searching for prisoner's accomplice.

A. J. Hebson, veteran confiden- tial clerk of Cudahy Packing Co., arrested on con game charge. Company says Hebson conspired with other employes to defraud concern by pay checks on false vouchers.

More than $500 is alleged to have been obtained by Hebson in this manner.

Joseph Smith, 2229 W. 24th st., and John Doczola, 2101 W. 25th